

Graham's Reflection

Christmas – A Time of Great Expectations

Christmas is an exciting time, and one of many reasons for this can be summarised in two words – 'Great Expectations'. Christmas is not just one day, it is a whole season. Christmas wouldn't be the same without the weeks leading up to it – the preparing, the choosing of gifts, sending out Christmas Cards, singing Christmas Carols, putting up the tree and decorating the house inside and out with bright tinsel and lights, deciding what to have for Christmas dinner, and wondering what Christmas presents we might get – Christmas wouldn't be the same without the suspense and expectations which fill the preceding weeks.

Church life is much the same, Advent and Christmas Services, carols evenings and end of year parties. There is a whole lot of preparation, and anxious expectation that it will all come together as planned.

The First Christmas also had more than it's fair share of expectations. Consider Joseph and Mary. An angel appeared to each of them individually to prepare them for what was about to happen. How did Joseph feel preparing for the birth of this child who he was to raise as his own, with the knowledge that he was actually the son of God? What sort of man was he expecting Jesus to grow to become. And Mary – one can not begin to imagine her thoughts, dreams and expectations. Did Mary have any idea what the future held for her son?

And yes there were the shepherds, the wise men, King Herod, Simeon and the prophetess Anna at the Temple – and of course the whole Jewish Nation who had been waiting and preparing for the coming of the Messiah for hundreds of years. What were their expectations – some looked forward with hope, some with despair, some with joy and some with fear. If indeed Jesus was the expected Messiah – what did that mean?

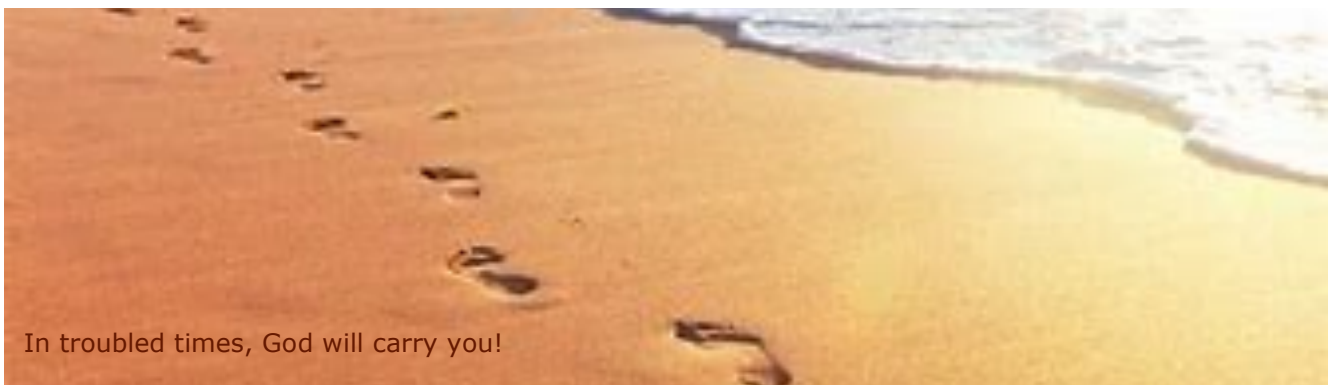

I doubt Jesus turned out to meet any of their personal expectations, but if we only got what we wanted or expected, we would miss out on so many blessings. Just the other side of Christmas is a whole new year, and about now our vision not only takes in the mad but exciting mayhem that Christmas can be, but looks to the year to come. Consider your hopes and expectations for your congregations, your mission and ministry, Christ's church, and the building of God's kingdom. What does 2025 look like for you and the church? Will you be content to just have your expectations met, or are you open and praying for our unpredictable God to do something new, unanticipated, completely left-field, and mind-blowingly life changing.

You know something? Christmas would actually be very boring if all we ever received or experienced was what we expected. In my experience, it is the unexpected that makes a good Christmas great. We can be eternally thankful that God sent us the Messiah that we needed, not the Messiah that we wanted.

I pray that this Christmas and 2025 is everything you expect, but also unbelievably so much more!! May you encounter the living God in new exciting and totally unexpected ways.

Joy to the world – the Lord is come.

God Bless, Pastor Graham Huth

Prayer

Sovereign Lord of Light and Peace,
In a world fractured by darkness and discord,
We come before you with hearts heavy yet hopeful.
Like a lighthouse piercing through storm-tossed waves,
Break through the shadows that surround us.

Breathe your Spirit anew into your people,
As you did upon the waters at creation.
Where chaos reigns, speak your peace.
Where hearts are hardened, plant seeds of compassion.
Where hope has dimmed, rekindle your eternal flame.

Renew your Church, O God,
Until we shine like stars in the darkness,
Bearing witness to your unchanging love.
Transform our weariness into strength,
Our fear into faithful action,
Our despair into dancing.

Make us instruments of your peace,
Channels of your healing grace,
Until your light spreads from heart to heart,
From community to community,
Like dawn breaking over distant hills.
In the name of Christ, our Peace,
Amen.

November Presbytery Report

9th November 2024

After the meeting opening formalities, Presbytery started with the standing committee reports

- MEO report, it was noted that the seed funding from MC3 needs to have Presbytery support and applications should be sent to the standing committee for comments, before being submitted to the MC3 team.

- Property report, Wendy has visited a number of congregations across the Presbytery and provided feedback that the most common item for preventative maintenance is to keep the gutters clean and free of vegetation! We were also reminded that all rental agreements for manses need to be signed by the property trust, and cannot be delegated to the real estate. The Protecht system is working well and seems to be easy to use. Please display and use the posters that Peter Rose supplied a few months ago.

- Safe Church report - ministry training was held on the 8th Nov, please let the office know if you need congregational training.

Rev Stuart Bosch gave a report on the 17th Assembly and an overview of the many topics that were discussed.

The Gen Sec, Rev Dr Adam McIntosh was introduced and spoke about the upcoming Moderator elect nominations, followed by the new support initiatives coming from Synod - Mission Accompanying Team, Church Renewal Fund to name a couple.

Rev Nigel Rogers spoke about the Centre for Ministry and Leadership courses that are available and also about Easter Madness camp for high schoolers. Churches and individuals can send their young folk, or sponsor or donate to help someone from another congregation to attend.

After lunch, there was the PRC report, with number of notations. Among them is the new minister starting at Kawana Waters in the new year, Rev Fritz Venzke, and the retirement of Rev Dr Anita Monro at the end of the year. As the ministers of the Burnett Network of Churches are now Presbytery positions, there was a vote to call a new minister, which was unanimous - and as he has accepted the call and already started, I can tell you his name is Rev Phil Alcorn. We look forward to meeting Fritz and Phil at the next meeting in March.

In the Chaplaincy report, Ps Jim Hall reminded us that having simple conversations and just listening to people, can have an immeasurable impact.

Uniting Care Mission Partner - Rev Keren Seto shared a range of initiatives, events and programs in which Uniting Care are involved, including Reconciliation, Grief & Loss, Prison Ministry, and Environment Sustainability.

The annual elections were held for Standing Committee and PRC, in which all nominees were duly elected. The Chair Peter Coombes (who was appointed by the Moderator in September) nominated to stand for 3 years and was elected, and the Property Officers also both nominated for 3 years, and were elected.

To finish the day, there was an open forum Q & A with the Gen Sec & PresMin, which covered a range of topics. (your rep will have more details in meeting minutes)

The Act2 work of the Assembly is taking concrete steps forward.

We're establishing two new national Commissions in 2025. You can now express interest in being a member, or offer feedback on the task we're giving them.

Your invitation to contribute to our theological culture and common life and wealth

The Assembly has an exciting opportunity for you to play a critical role in co-creating the future of the United Church as we establish two new national Commissions in 2025.

Following the decisions of the 17th Assembly in July relating to the Act2 Project, the Assembly has moved from a time of reflecting on our life and imagining our future into a specific set of concrete steps. Two whole-of-Church Commissions are being created:

The Commission For Theology, Formation And Leadership.

The Commission For Governance, Resourcing And Administration.

There are two ways to engage with this exciting work right now:

- Express Interest in being a member of one of the Commissions.
- Give feedback on the draft Terms of Reference for the two Commissions.

The final deadline for both responses is 1 March 2025.

Farewell Rev Craig Allan

On the 21st November, BlueCare and the Presbytery celebrated the conclusion of Rev Craig Allan's chaplaincy placement at Masters Lodge, Hervey Bay. Mr Jeff Howard, BlueCare manager of Mission & Pastoral Care, welcomed everyone and then handed over to Rev Stuart Bosch who led worship and presided over the formal proceedings of letting go of a pastoral relationship. Stuart received acclaim from the residents for both his guitar playing and his singing! Jeff even suggested he 😊 should apply for Australian Idol

Several Presbytery reps were present, and many residents and staff came as well. Several members spoke very highly of Craig and of how much he will be missed, including Rev Keren Seto (Right) Then Craig and his lovely wife Nadine, cut the cake, for morning tea! We wish Craig and Nadine all the best for their future back in New Zealand.

Montville Reflection Gallery

Space to rest and reflect 10 am to 3 pm every day of the year!
Montville Uniting Church, 152 Main Street, Montville Q.

Vision

Rev. Ron Potter, the founder of the Montville Reflection Gallery, envisaged “the Montville Uniting Church premises being used as the ongoing venue for art displays” as part of “the congregation’s Christian witness in the community” with “the building becoming widely known as a place of inspiration and hope”.

We don’t know how many visitors have passed through the Gallery since its inception in 2017, but we do know that many of them have found the experience of visiting the Reflection Gallery to be just that: a source of inspiration, hope and peace. The messages in our Visitors’ Books attest to that. Here’s just a couple of examples:

I am in a season of waiting and the words gave me comfort and reassurance. The paintings are beautiful!

Your paintings and the accompanying messages are so thoughtful and inspiring. Thank you for sharing your talent and faith in the space.

Aims

In 2024 and beyond, our aims remain to:

- provide a quiet, creative, reflective space for local residents and visitors to rest, ponder and pray;
- share the Christian message of inspiration, hope and peace through the hospitality of the space; and
- provide an exhibition space for artists working in a variety of faith-based contexts.

Are you, or someone you know, able to assist us with fulfilling our vision and aims? We are looking for artists working in faith-based contexts to exhibit in the space.

Glasshouse Country Christmas Preparations

Members of the Glasshouse Country Uniting Church have been busy preparing for Christmas.

We began Advent Bible studies in early November looking in depth at Luke 1 stories of Zechariah and Elizabeth, Mary and Joseph, and their promised special sons, John and Jesus.

The 'Busy Hands and Minds' group collected books and plants, cooked, sewed and made beautiful craft decorations ready for a Christmas Market on 24th November. On 1st December 2024, the church family enjoyed a shared Christmas Brunch after morning worship at Beerwah.

At 6pm some gathered again for the Peachester Community Christmas Carols with children dressing up as the Nativity characters and items from the music team and Deline and Merindie Briscoe.

Advent Appeal 2024 for Kennedy Patrol
